Delivering strategic solutions. Building solid careers.

The Ontario Realty Corporation (ORC) strategically manages, on behalf of the Ontario government, one of the largest real estate portfolios in Canada. Smart, strategic thinkers are the cornerstone of our success in delivering value, service and innovative solutions province-wide. Take ownership of your career with us.

Manager, Stakeholder Communications (Contract until December 31, 2010)

This newly created position calls for a strategic, innovative thinker able to generate new ideas and solutions in the area of marketing and communications strategy and tactics. Reporting to the Vice-President, Marketing and Corporate Communications in Toronto, you will develop and implement innovative, creative, strategic approaches to promote our business directions and value-add services to internal and external stakeholders. This entails overseeing our brand, positioning, marketing and outreach programs, including graphic design and website management. With a successful track record as an inspiring leader, you are adept at coaching and motivating productive teams, as well as building effective relationships with clients, partners and stakeholders. Your 10 years of marketing, corporate communications, stakeholder relations or public relations experience, including at least 3 years in a managerial capacity, encompass a background in developing employee communications, using web-based communications and social media, executing market research and marketing plans, publishing reports, working with industry suppliers, and managing complex multi-stakeholder initiatives. A degree or diploma in Journalism, Communications, Public Relations, Marketing or a related field is expected.

To apply, please e-mail your resume (MS Word only), indicating File # CC-09-6 in the subject line, to resumes@ontariorealty.ca. We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.
